BANGALORE, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1906.

PART III.

Legislative Measures and Rules thereunder.

No. R. 5854—L. R. 173-06-2, dated 10th December 1906.

In exercise of the powers conferred by the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to make the following amendments in the rules under the said Code, issued with Notification No. 264—R. 122, dated the 10th July 1901 :—

1. Clause (b) of Rule 47 shall be omitted, clause (c) being changed to clause (b) ; and in the last mentioned clause, the words " of land of the nature described in the last clause or " shall be omitted.

2. In Rule 48 for the words and letters " clauses (b) and (c), " the word and letter "clause (b) " shall be substituted.

3. The following Rule shall be inserted between Rules 49 and 50 :—

" 49A. The occupancy of land near a Railway Station, and within half a mile thereof or such other distance from it as may from time to time be fixed by Government, may be given out for agricultural purposes at the discretion of Deputy Commissioners, subject to the condition that the land shall be liable to resumption without payment of compensation when it is required for public purposes ; but such land shall only be given out for building purposes with the previous sanction of Government and subject to their orders in each case."

No. J. 1598—Cts. 75-06-2, dated 11th December 1906.

In supersession of Notification No. J. 418—C. 35-4, dated the 7th August 1905, His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore is pleased to issue the following orders for the guidance of all Criminal Courts and Police Officers in the Mysore State :—

(1) The Courts of the State shall not, except where specially authorized by Government to do so, exercise jurisdiction over a Native Officer or soldier of the Indian Army who, while not on leave, commits any kind of offence within the State. If for any special reason it is considered desirable in any such case that the offender should be tried by a State Court, the case must be reported to Government for orders. Further if in any such case the circumstances are not such as to allow of immediate arrest by the Indian Military Authorities, the offender may be arrested by State Authority if the law of Mysore permits of such arrest, but he should be handed over forthwith to the nearest Indian Military Authority.

(2) The Courts of the State are not debarred from exercising jurisdiction in the case of a Native Officer or soldier of the Indian Army who, while on leave within the State,

(a) commits within the State an offence of any kind against the law of the State, or,

(b) is arrested for an offence committed by him in the State on some previous occasion, whether he was or was not on leave on such occasion; provided that, when the offence with which such Officer or soldier is charged is one which was committed by him while he was previously on duty, and for which he has already been tried and either acquitted or punished by the British Authorities, the Courts of the State shall not again try him for the same offence.

By Order,
K. S. CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR
Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.
